

Modern Slavery Act Statement

Introduction

JobsAndJobs.uk is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all areas of our business and supply chain. This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps we have taken to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in our business or supply chains.

Our Business

JobsAndJobs.uk is a UK-based recruitment platform connecting employers with job seekers across multiple sectors including healthcare, construction, retail, hospitality, and security. We operate with transparency and integrity at the core of our practices.

Our Policies

We have in place a number of internal policies to ensure that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner. These include policies on anti-slavery, whistleblowing, recruitment, and code of conduct.

Due Diligence Processes

We undertake due diligence when engaging with new suppliers and regularly review existing suppliers. Our due diligence includes assessing risks, conducting audits where necessary, and ensuring that all suppliers adhere to our standards.

Training and Awareness

We provide training to our staff to ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business.

Ongoing Commitment

We will continue to review and improve our practices to combat modern slavery and human trafficking. This statement will be reviewed and updated annually.

Approval

This statement was approved by the management of JobsAndJobs.uk and is signed on their behalf.
